

Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award

Drive - Determination - Commitment - Passion
Do you have what it takes to succeed?

George Osborne, keynote speaker 2006

Entrepreneurs are rare, exciting and key members of the business community. They build businesses, create jobs and power economic growth. Open to those aged 35 or under, this award celebrates those individuals who have let nothing stand in their way.

Make sure you get the recognition you deserve...

“Having positioned ourselves in the Thames Valley – the heart of the technology industry, winning this award has helped us to raise our profile and be recognised for our innovation.

I strongly recommend anyone seeking differentiation to enter this award as not only does it help to attract talented individuals, it assists to validate your business and build momentum to drive it forward.”

James Roberts, co-director of coffee innovators Peros Ltd.

“Personally, I found the acknowledgment of our business success very satisfying, particularly because the award considered the challenges, risks and vision required to achieve that success. It was also great to receive the award in front of such a prestigious audience of like-minded individuals.”

Vicky Jewson, of Jewson Film Productions.

“The awards ceremony at Wentworth was a timely boost. I was just about to fly off to finish filming and it meant that I went on a real high. Being in the running for the award gave me recognition as one of the leading young entrepreneurs in the region.”
